

Joshua Vigil (Josh) was recently selected as the Deputy District Director for the Colorado District Office in January 2017, where he serves as the Chief Operating Officer and Veteran Business Development Office. He originally joined the SBA in October 2004 as a Human Resources Specialist with the (then) Office of Human Resources Management – Denver. As an HR Specialist, he performed many functions such as payroll processing, staffing, classification, and spent the last 8 ½ years as an Employee and Labor Relations Specialist. He Josh brings over 14 years of HR and Management experience.

Josh began his career with the Federal Bureau of Prisons as an HR Specialist in January 2003. Prior to his civil service career, Josh was on active duty Paralegal with the United States Air Force. He separated active duty in January 2003 and in 2004 entered the Air Force Reserves. In 2010, Josh received his commission and has served as the Equal Opportunity Director for the Colorado Air National Guard's Equal Opportunity Office. He currently holds the rank of Captain and has over 19 years of total military service.

Josh is a native of Raton, New Mexico, migrating to Pueblo, Colorado in 1994. He is married to Ruby Vigil and has two children.

On his off time he enjoys camping, hiking, fishing and a cold beer with friends and family.