Introduction

Dear Sponsor,

January 1, 2017

Another year has come and gone for the Latino Chamber of Commerce and its members! I would like to thank you and your business for your dedication and commitment to this organization. This is your Chamber of Commerce, and we are here to work for you, its members. The Special Events Department is a mixture of marketing, fundraising, and event development, all of which revolve around successfully engaging and connecting members with one another and with the community. The events of the Latino Chamber have a wide variety of purposes: networking, socializing, informing, etc. with the intention of providing a little something of interest to everyone.

This year we are asking, our past sponsors to consider become a community leader. We are asking as a community leader that you increase your sponsorship for the 2017 year. Consider co-sponsoring one of our larger events (Dinner Dance, Golf, Gran Fiesta/Parade Kickoff & Comedy Night). Collaborating with the Latino Chamber through event sponsorships is a great way to not only share your business, but also create connections with others who share your interests. In addition to the larger event sponsorships, we offer monthly sponsorship opportunities as well as advertising in our yearly directory or quarterly Noticias Magazine publications.

This packet organizes all of the opportunities available for members to collaborate with the Latino Chamber of Commerce on events and publications. We provide the information needed to find a partnership to suit your business, budget, and interests. In addition, if you think of a question this publication does not answer or you want to sponsor an event but are unsure of which one, I am only a phone call away and always willing to discuss options!

Best Wishes,

DENNIS LOWRY

About the Latino Chamber of Commerce

In 1979, Pueblo's Latino community was becoming a significant economic force. An influential group of businesspersons, recognizing the need for an organized voice, created the Latino Chamber of Commerce of Pueblo. Bolstering the newborn chamber, many professions represented the 35-member inaugural organization, including architects, attorneys, business owners, medical professionals, and more. Judge Joe Ulibarri, Dr. Tom Autobee, Dr. Thomas Duran, Dr. Joe Roybal and Victor "Tony" Navarro were among the prominent community leaders involved.

The Latino Chamber met in various locations, faced dilemmas and issues that forged the teamwork necessary to build a strong organization, relying only on the volunteer efforts of the dedicated members. In 1991, the Board of Directors was able to hire a full-time director, someone who could lead the organization, implement services and recruit new members. A sense of permanence and stability was established in 1995 when a building in the heart of downtown Pueblo was purchased. Renovating the facility to include prime office space, the Latino Chamber is currently home to several small businesses.

Today, the Latino Chamber is one of the most dynamic business organizations in Pueblo. Boasting nearly 1,000 members, including small businesses, professionals, individuals and corporations, the Chamber creates and promotes opportunity and growth for small, minority and women-owned businesses. Benefits and opportunities are endless. Ever responsive to its members' needs, the Latino Chamber provides educational workshops, classes and seminars in an effort to assist businesses in their day-to-day operations and in helping members to develop their interests and realize their goals. The Latino Chamber also hosts many networking opportunities, offers a members-only workers compensation program, publishes an informative monthly newsletter and so much more.

Recognizing the challenges and needs of the community, the Latino Chamber was instrumental in the development of the Pueblo Hispanic Education Foundation (PHEF), the El Pueblo Interdevelopment Corporation (EPIC), the Southern Colorado International Trade Center (SCITC), and the Human Relations Commission (HRC), which is currently a national model, used by the Colorado Department of Justice and the Pueblo Technology Alliance.

Testimonies of their continued success include PHEF awards scholarships totaling more than $60,000 on an annual basis and EPIC, a micro-loan program, which finances start-up, expands businesses in a non-traditional banking manner, and is dedicated to retaining interest rates less than the current prime rate. These organizations are the result of members of the Latino Chamber being interested in making a difference in the educational and economic advancement of Pueblo's workforce and business community. The Latino Chamber of Commerce is proud of the difference it has made and continues to make in the Pueblo Community. The organization is a strong voice in the community that no doubt, will continue to be heard.
